

HISTORICAL-G. Y. A.

The Gulf Yachting Association was organized in Mobile, Alabama, on November 13th., 1920 with the following yachting organizations as charter-members: Biloxi Yacht Club; Eastern Shore Yacht Club; Houston Yacht Club; Pensacola Yacht Club and Southern Yacht Club.

Membership in the G. Y. A., is limited to yachting organizations of the coastal cities of the Gulf of Mexico. Annual meetings of the G. Y. A., are held on the first Sunday of May.

Annual Regattas are held on or about "Labor Day" of each year, and the winning club has its name inscribed on the very handsome $5,000.00 trophy donated by Sir Thomas Lipton, and known as the "Sir Shomas Lipton Inter-Club Challenge Trophy", and the trophy is retained by the winning club, which becomes the challenged club in the succeeding year of competition.
