Greetings . . .

Hello, skippers, crews, your families and all attending this, the 46th Annual Sir Thomas Lipton Regatta. On behalf of the Gulf Yachting Association, I bid you a hearty welcome.

This is not only the epic sailing event of the Gulf Coast, but I know one of the finest in the USA. The interest and spirit that prevail during the Lipton is indeed unusual. I cannot remember when some member of my family did not participate in this event as skipper or crew long before I first sailed in this great series of races.

It is therefore with a feeling of sincere humility that I greet you and wish you all the luck in the world.

Let me here thank all member clubs of the Gulf Yachting Association, my fellow officers and board members, and all the officials who have worked so faithfully to make this and other GYA events successful. I particularly thank the officers, committee chairmen and members of the St. Andrews Bay Yacht Club for their most excellent work in planning for and hosting this Lipton Regatta.

I hope the fouls will be few and the weather grand. I know the competition will be great and the sportsmanship unexcelled.

Most sincerely yours,

Alan C. Sheppard
36th President
Gulf Yachting Association
