August 13, 1980

Welcome:

On behalf of the Officers and Directors of the Gulf Yachting Association, it is my great pleasure to extend warm greetings to the participants, visitors, and guests at this our 61st Annual Lipton Championship Regatta.

Our host, Pensacola Yacht Club, is well known for its hospitality and its excellence in conducting major regattas. To PYC members we offer our thanks and appreciation.

I wish each competitor good luck and fair sailing.

Sincerely,

Daniel B. Killeen

Pensacola Yacht Club is honored to host the sixty first Lipton Cup Regatta. We are pleased that this annual event takes place once more on Pensacola Bay, which is not only a beautiful place to sail, but offers fine challenges of wind, seas and tide to competitors.

Our members welcome the O.Y.A. teams and their supporters and extend our hospitality to all.

I hope that your visit is enjoyable and that each sailor can take home memories of exciting races against outstanding competition.
